British Values

Democracy:

This involves understanding the democratic process, including participation in elections, respecting the views of others, and recognizing that everyone has a voice.

The Rule of Law:

This emphasizes the importance of laws and rules, both in school and in society, and understanding their purpose in maintaining order and fairness.

Individual Liberty:

This focuses on personal freedoms within the boundaries of the law, encouraging individuals to make choices and take responsibility for their actions.

Mutual Respect and Tolerance:

This highlights the importance of treating everyone with respect, regardless of their background, beliefs, or faith, and promoting understanding and acceptance of diversity
